

Transcript – What was Our Process?

What was our process?

- We started with a task that focused on one concept.
- We brainstormed related ideas for the mathematics and the context.
- We made connections between the related ideas.
- We used the given context, or added to the context, to write an amplified task that considered the needs of our students.